

Vacancy

2 Positions: Youth Engagement & Intake Officer Mental Health Clinician

Location - Whyalla

- The Opportunity

We offer an exciting opportunity for a Youth Engagement & Intake Officer and an experienced Mental Health professional to join the multidisciplinary team of the new headspace Whyalla centre.

These positions will be responsible for providing support services to young people 12-25 and their families and friends, through the provision of assessment, therapeutic interventions and care coordination. The support service will further include mental health promotion activities, youth engagement activities, advocacy and linking young people with supports in the community. You will work collaboratively within the headspace team in order to enhance the mental health outcomes of young people and will report directly to the Assistant Manager Youth Programs.

- What's In It For You?

These are rewarding community-based roles within a tight knit, passionate, diverse and professional team.

headspace is committed to ongoing professional development of staff, and as such you'll enjoy regular access to training and supervision which will not only further your career in mental health, but also aid in maintaining your registration with your industry specific disciplinary body.

For your hard work and dedication, you will be rewarded with an attractive salary, with access to Salary Packaging and Novated Leasing.

- Qualifications for both roles

- You will have a recognised qualification in Social Work, Psychology, Mental Health Nursing, or Occupational Therapy and be eligible for registration with AHPRA and/or membership/eligibility with a professional association.
- The Mental Health Clinician role will possess Mental Health Accreditation (with mental health qualifications or 3-5 years mental health experience).
- You will have a demonstrated level of skill and experience with working with young people (12-25 yrs) and families.
- Most importantly, you will be passionate and dedicated team members.
